News updates

End of Term 2 arrangements on Thursday 20 December

Frome College will close for Christmas today, 20 December at 3.00pm, as a mark of respect following the sad news that our Media teacher, Anna Kirsopp-Lewis and her baby, lost their lives in a car accident. Anna was an inspirational teacher who cared deeply for her students, and a dear colleague whose strength will be missed by all who knew her. In the New Year, we plan to celebrate Anna's life and work. Our thoughts are with her family at this tragic time.

Frome College Carol Concert at St John's Church on Thursday 13 December

It was a pleasure to welcome a full house at our Carol Concert. It has been a very busy term at Frome College, and we feel privileged to see so many talented young people. The concert involved over 80 students and guests, and we thank all who took part to make this popular evening possible. We will share the collection with charity and music department.

Frome College launch brand new catering company for 2019

We are delighted to announce that from Monday 7 January 2019, our new catering company CucinA Restaurants Ltd will offer a wide range of innovative fresh food to our students, which will be available all day. Following a review, companies were invited to show what they offer in tasty healthy meals. Starting the New Year with a fresh and varied menu by an Executive Chef, there will be a Breakfast Service from 8.15-8.40am, with free porridge for all students. There will also be options to purchase cooked breakfasts, such as bacon rolls, pancakes, croissants, and cereals. The Sixth Form café will be rebranded with a coffee house style menu. 'Pronto' in Frome Futures will offer a relaxed New York deli area, where a range of premium sandwiches, salads, hot handheld snacks and one-pot meals will be available from 10.00am–2.30pm.

Sport news: Martial Arts

Congratulations to Oz-Xander Mills in Year 10, who has passed his Martial Arts Course to become a qualified Assistant Instructor. We wish him every success for the future!
