News update

We are delighted to announce that Team 'Vault 7' - Tom Haines, Matt Haines, Connor Cairns, Hamish Murray & Jake Howell, have won 3rd Place in the Cybercenturion Competition Final held yesterday in the Institute of Engineering & Technology at Savoy Place in London. An outstanding achievement for everyone involved. Our 2nd team 'insert name here' (yes, that is their name) - Joe Malley, Morgan Curle, Dylan Oliver & Adam Kerlake, secured 7th Place. Both teams did well to get to the final against stiff competition of 260 teams from the UK and overseas territories, the 3rd consecutive year the College has been in the competition's final. Organisers congratulated the teams for ensuring Frome College remains on the UK's IT stage!
