

3rd June 2024

Dear Parents, Carers and Students,

I hope that you all had a good break over half term and that those students taking external exams are refreshed for the next couple of weeks. GCSE and A Level exams continue up until 20th June, thank you for your support.

As we move into the summer, all students will continue to wear normal College uniform, if there are any adjustments due to extreme weather, we will inform you at the time.

Some key dates for your diary:
